This season will serve as a transformational "rebirth" of key characters on the show.

We will see Hayley try cope as a hybrid, while Klaus will ask for Elijah and Marcel's help with setting up an upcoming war against the Guerrero warewolves.

And as a new found father, Klaus will fight to protect his daughter, Hope, from threats against her.

Also, be sure to catch Vampire Diaries', Nina Dobrev, as Tatia this season on The Originals as well.

Dobrev will reprise her role from season three of Vampire Diaries.

As you may remember, Klaus and Elijah had a sit down dinner with Damon and Stefan, where they let the Salvatore brothers know that they too, fell in love with a doppelganger. When Klaus and Elijah's mother found out about the rift between them, she used Tatia's blood to create their vampire bloodlines.

Tatia will be appearing in the November 3rd episode of the Originals in a flashback. (The Hollywood Reporter (<http://www.hollywoodreporter.com/live-feed/vampire-diaries-star-nina-dobrev-735808>))

There will also be a cross over episode between The Originals and The Vampire Diaries.

No word yet on when the crossover episode will premiere.
