Tonight's episode of The Originals still focuses on Elijah being held captive and tortured by Ester. Klaus goes to Ester and demands that she release Elijah. Instead, Klaus and his mom relive their past and all of the chaos that have been taken place since the Mikelson's became vampires. But that's not all Ester has planned--while speaking with Klaus, she makes him an offer he can't refuse. Last but not least, Klaus will come face to face with someone from his past, which in The Vampire Diaries and The Originals' history is always Tuesday morning gossip.

Check out a first look of The Originals' web series, "The Awakening" featuring everyone's favorite 'Original' character Kol Mikaelson played by Nathaniel Buzolic. The news comes courtesy of EW's Samantha Highfill (<http://insidetv.ew.com/2014/11/04/the-originals-the-awakening-first-look/?hootPostID=4f54c2505e08e660b215d0ec9bd1f8e3>). Buzolic is set to reprise his role, as the youngest of brothers.

'Kol' first appeared on The Originals' second episode "Alive and Kicking," through Klaus' flashbacks. The writers of both shows always find a way to bring 'dead' characters back. This is both entertaining and enjoyable to watch. The web series launches Monday, Nov. 10th during the east coast airing of The Originals.
